GOV. BAMBERGER IS OPPOSED TO THE BIG FIGHT

Ogden's prospect of drawing the Willard-Fulton prize fight here for July 4 was officially spoiled today when news came from Salt Lake that Governor Bamberger had announced himself as firmly opposed to any effort to bring the match to Ogden or any other part of Utah.

This news was received here rather gloomily by promoters of the proposed Ogden engagement and others who were anticipating the business harvest which would result, if the big affair were staged here. However, they have announced that the governor's declaration has stopped all negotiations between them and the manager of the coming event.

For a time it looked as though Ogden's outlook of getting the match for this city was very bright. As one after another of the proposed eastern towns were eliminated by official action of the state officials, glances were turned westward with renewed hope by the promoters of the match.

The laws of the state will not permit of the contest being held, according to an opinion of the attorney-general given at the request of the governor.

Rev. J. E. Carver today received a message from Denver, replying to a dispatch he sent yesterday, disapproving of the receiving of Red Cross money from the proposed fight. The reply follows:

"Chairman Rev. John R. Carver, 510 First National Bank building, Ogden, Utah: Referring yours, this will authorize you to officially deny statement by Willard that part of fight proceeds are to go to Red Cross Washington headquarters. Have stated definitely Red Cross could not under any conditions accept portion of prize fight proceeds. (Signed) 'JOHN W. MOREY.'"

PETITION IN THE CALDWELL CASE

The petition of Mary J. Lewis that letters of administration of the estate of R. A. Caldwell, deceased, be issued to R. A. Moyes and that the will be admitted to probate in the district court was today set for a hearing in department two on May 27.

Caldwell died in Ogden and two wills are alleged to have been introduced by persons claiming to be legatees. It is expected the case will develop some interesting facts when cleared up by the court.

MEETING TONIGHT TO CONSIDER PAVING WASHINGTON AVENUE NORTH FROM OGDEN RIVER BRIDGE

The matter of paving Washington avenue from the Ogden river bridge to the north city limits, on the east side, will be discussed this evening at a meeting which has been called for 8 o'clock in the city hall. All property owners with property abutting on Washington avenue in this district and others interested are urged to be present. The meeting will be merely to afford an opportunity of hearing from Ogden people on the question, and definite action will not be taken. However, it will be considered as a hearing preliminary to advertising for the obtaining of jurisdiction in the district for the proposed work. That will require a twenty-day period and when completed a final hearing will be given all interested people. The city commission, led by Mayor T. S. Browning, has adopted a policy of leaving the decision as to whether the paving is wanted or not, to the vote of the property owners of the district entirely and has announced that it does not propose to force the issue.

The need of a paved road on Washington avenue from the Ogden river bridge north to the city limits is realized by everyone who has occasion to pass over that part of the highway. It was described today by a member of the Pike's Peak-Ocean to Ocean Highway association as positively the roughest stretch of road on that highway and as a disgrace to the community.

There has been some opposition to the proposed plan voiced by several people who believed that the sewer ought to be laid along the street before the paving is put down. Secretary O. J. Stillwell of the Ogden Publicity bureau today said the east side only of the road will be paved this year and the sewer would be built along the west side before that side is paved.

It is said that the present is the most opportune time to do this work. Supplies may be obtained now through state contracts, which were placed by the state at prices paid by the government for such supplies, and which by the way are as low as can be obtained, and the money in the state treasury which is available for the work may not again be available for many years. Through the assurance of the state that it will pay 45 per cent of the cost and the intention of the county to pay also a part of the cost, the tax which will fall on the property owners, if the work is done, will be very light in comparison. It also is not probable that building materials will ever again be cheaper than at present.

For these reasons the construction of the road at this time, local boosters of the project claim, will be very opportune. If the paving is laid, the county then will be traversed north to south by a concrete highway which will make travel easy and swift. The work has been started on the highway from the north city limits to the Pleasant View road and if the stretch from the Ogden river bridge to the north city limits is finished in expected time, a splendid boulevard will be ready for travelers before winter.

PAPPAS IS FINED $120 PLEADING GUILTY IN COURT

Nick Pappas, a Greek resident of Salt Lake county who was arrested several weeks ago as he alighted from a train at Thirtieth street, and who was sentenced in municipal court to pay a fine of $299, this morning in the district court was fined $120 by Judge Agee. The case had been appealed to the district court by attorneys for Pappas.

In reducing the fine, Judge Agee acknowledged extenuating circumstances in the case. It was shown that Pappas had been a law-abiding citizen, has a family and is reliable. He had been victimized, he declared, by a friend in Wyoming who had given him the liquor to bring to Salt Lake, telling him that there was no danger and that he would not be caught.

Pappas declined a jury and in several other ways showed that he did not wish to cause the county undue expense. The judge took all of these facts into consideration in passing sentence. Pappas pleaded guilty to the charge. He paid the fine promptly and was released.

JOHN BERG ACCEPTS OFFER SENT BY BINFORD

The receipt of telegrams from Pete Visser and John Berg this morning by W. C. Binford, virtually assures Jack Harbertson of a return wrestling match with Berg in Ogden, as the latter's coming here depended on whether he could get a match with Visser, if he defeated Harbertson.

Binford, who has taken preliminary steps for the staging of a series of big wrestling bouts in Ogden, telegraphed a guarantee of $500 to Berg for a match with Harbertson, and $500 for another with Visser, if he wins the first. To this telegram he received the following reply:

"Your offer accepted. Let me know the date as soon as possible. (Signed) 'JOHN BERG.'"

Visser was offered a bout with Berg, in accordance with the condition specified above, and his reply was also received this morning, as follows:

"Will be glad to meet winner. I expect to be home the latter part of May and will be ready for a bout at any time. (Signed) 'PETE VISSER.'"

Speaking of the proposed bout between Harbertson and Berg, Mr. Binford stated that Tuesday, May 21, had been set as the tentative date and that negotiations were now being made for an arena.

"SILVER THREADS" FIND PIN GAME IS BEST RECREATION FOR WOMEN

AT TOP, MRS. LAURA McKEE, MRS. LAURA HALL, MRS. GERTRUDE BUREAU; BELOW, MRS. MINNIE SHAW, MRS. MINNIE WHELPLEY.

There have been women's bowling teams galore, but Cleveland, O., is the first bowling center to put over a team composed of women, well past the prime of life. The team is called the Silver Threads, a name which is not hard to analyze, as every member of the outfit has gray hair.

The captain of the team, Mrs. Minnie Whelpley, is not only the best bowler on the team, but she bowls left handed. The team has been bowling well above 800 in competition during the winter and spring.

Every member of the team echoed Mrs. Whelpley's unqualified endorsement of bowling as fine exercise for women. "I know of nothing better for the middle-aged woman than bowling," Mrs. Whelpley said. "It takes one's mind off worries and household duties besides providing the ideal amount of physical effort. The competition is stimulating and beneficial. I believe every woman would feel better if she would take a few hours off every week and bowl."
